

DROUGHT COMMUNITIES SMALL BUSINESS SUPPORT PROGRAM INVERELL

We understand that the drought and other natural disasters (including the Covid-19 pandemic) have significantly affected the day-to-day operations of many small businesses in rural and regional Australia. Our Rural Business Support Counsellors (RBSC) have a wealth of knowledge in small business operations, management and financial assessment and can assist to determine future possibilities and identify risks to ensure your business remains viable during this uncertain time. Some examples on how we can assist include:

- Free and confidential financial counselling
- Provide assistance to access specialist third-party advice, such as financial planning, legal, specialist taxation and accounting
- Identify the benefits and drawbacks of different options to manage financial issues
- Develop budgets and cash flows
- Liaise negotiations with creditors
- Access dispute resolution services
- Understand your rights
- Access government and community grants, programs and schemes.
- Identify and mitigate business risks
