EVICTED! A MODERN ROMANCE A comedic film about the rental crisis comes to Tenterfield

Sydney-based production studio The Story Mill is hitting the road with its award-winning comedy, EVICTED! A MODERN ROMANCE, across regional New South Wales in March 2023.

Dubbed as "The Castle for a new generation" by Gary Maddox in the Sydney Morning Herald, EVICTED! is a fresh and topical Aussie comedy that follows four millennial housemates on the verge of eviction. The film takes a satirical look at today's housing and job market, offering a relatable and hilarious perspective that speaks specifically to young people.

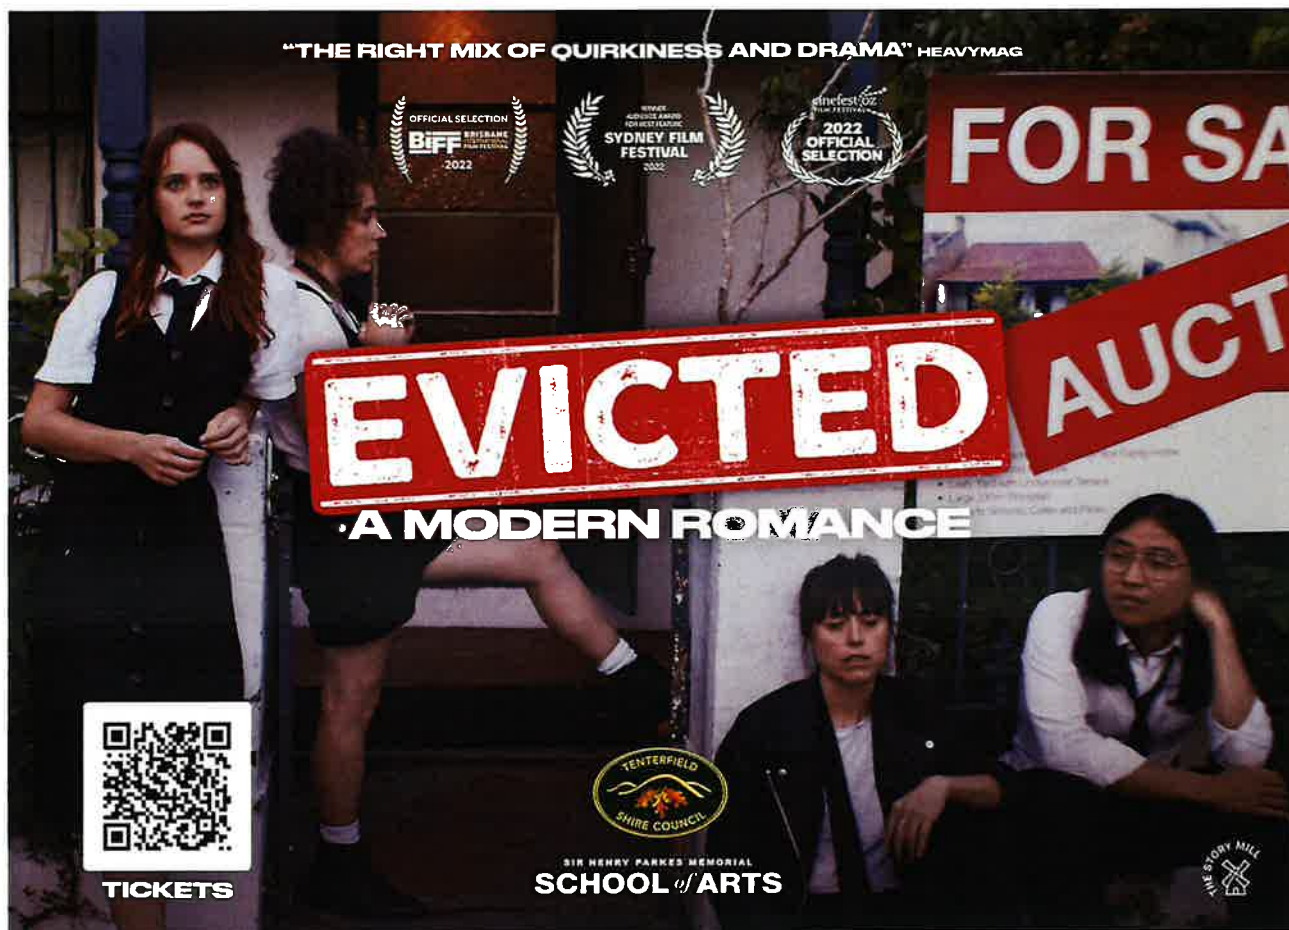

Creative duo, Rowan Devereux and Sophie Saville, will tour EVICTED! to bring independent homegrown cinema to regional Australia. The cast & crew will travel to over 15 regional towns including; Orange, Gunnedah, Moree, and Tenterfield, where they will be hosting Q&A screenings whilst documenting the journey on the road. "It'll be like Priscilla Queen of the Desert, except instead of a drag show, it's a movie about the challenges of finding a home," said Saville, the producer.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to see EVICTED! in the cinema and the chance to hear and learn from two innovative and successful independent Aussie filmmakers, Writer & Director Rowan Devereux and Producer Sophie Saville in an exclusive Q&A session after the screening.

EVICTED! is screening at Tenterfield Cinema on Friday 17 March from 6 pm – 8 pm at Sir Henry Parkes Memorial School of Arts - 205 Rouse Street Tenterfield NSW 2372.
